Findings of Fact

License Information and Background

1. Davidson, individual identification number 338944, holds a general lines agent license with a life, accident, health, and HMO qualification issued by the department on September 24, 1999, with the commissioner granting Davidson a waiver and consent to engage in the business of insurance under 18 U.S.C. § 1033.
2. Under firm identification number 14522, Davidson D Enterprises, holds a general lines agency license with a life, accident, health, and HMO qualification issued by the department on July 10, 2001. Davidson is the sole owner, officer, and shareholder of the agency.
3. Davidson's ex-husband, Mark Alan Brown (Brown), individual identification number 446155, previously held a Group 1, Life, Health, Accident Insurance and HMO agent's license issued by the department. On February 24, 1999, Brown's insurance license was revoked in Official Order No. 99-0314, after a hearing on the merits at the State Office of Administrative Hearings.
4. Brown's revocation was based on his failure to disclose his criminal history in his 1995 license application and his 1997 conviction of the felony offense of theft by check.
5. Brown was employed as Davidson's office manager at Davidson D Enterprises Inc.

Allianz Annuity Applications

6. In April of 2020, Brown used Davidson's credentials with Allianz Life Insurance Company of North America (Allianz) to submit 13 Allianz annuity applications, listing Davidson as the writing agent.
7. Both Allianz's and the department's investigations found that Davidson did not have knowledge of Brown's submissions, and Davidson did not intentionally permit or authorize Brown to use her credentials and submit the applications.

Mitigating Circumstances

8. Brown admitted to the department that he did not have Davidson's permission to use her credentials and submit the annuity applications.
9. There were no premiums received for the applications. Davidson later properly re-submitted two of the applications.
10. According to the department's investigation, this is the only occurrence of the conduct.
11. Davidson and Davidson D Enterprises agree to terminate Brown's employment as of October 1, 2021, and agree that Brown will no longer work for them.

Conclusions of Law
