

No. 2025-9159

Official Order of the Texas Commissioner of Insurance

Date: 02/26/2025

Subject Considered:

Texas Department of Insurance

v.

Ronaldo Camacho

SOAH Docket No. 454-24-02660.C

NUNC PRO TUNC ORDER

On January 16, 2025, the Texas Department of Insurance (TDI) issued Commissioner's Order No. 2025-9080, denying the motion for rehearing filed by Ronaldo Camacho. Due to a clerical error, the issue date of "01/26/2025" was incorrectly recorded on Order No. 2025-9080. The correct issue date for Order No. 2025-9080 is "01/21/2025," which is the last day TDI could issue an order on Mr. Camacho's motion before it was overruled by operation of law under Government Code § 2001.146. This order is issued nunc pro tunc to correct the error.

The commissioner of insurance has plenary power to correct an order that contains a clerical error due to inadvertence or mistake at any time by the entry of a nunc pro tunc order. Correction of a clerical error is not a substantive change in the order. In re Ward, 137 SW.3d 910, 913 (Tex. App.—Texarkana 2004, no pet.).

Other than the correction of the error, the text of the original order remains the same and reads as follows:

General Remarks and Official Action Taken:

The subject of this order is the motion for rehearing filed by Ronaldo Camacho. This order denies Mr. Camacho's motion.

Background

On November 26, 2024, the Texas Department of Insurance (TDI) issued Commissioner's Order No. 2024-8984. The order revoked the general lines agent license with life, accident, health, and HMO qualifications and county mutual agent license held by Ronaldo Camacho on the basis of his fraudulent conduct and misrepresentation of insurance contracts.

On December 9, 2024, TDI received from Mr. Camacho a handwritten letter requesting a rehearing. The letter did not specifically identify any factual or legal errors in Order No. 2024-8721. Instead, it repeated arguments made during the hearing, denying that Mr. Camacho committed wrong acts and disparaging and questioning the motivation of the person who reported his acts to his employer.

On December 12, 2024, TDI Enforcement staff submitted a response to Mr. Camacho's motion, opposing it. Enforcement staff note that Mr. Camacho's motion only repeats arguments made during the hearing; that Mr. Camacho did not make a written closing or file exceptions to the administrative law judge's proposal for decision; and that in his motion for rehearing, Mr. Camacho fails to identify with particularity findings of fact or conclusions of law that are the subject of the complaint or any evidentiary or legal ruling claimed to be erroneous and that he does not articulate a legal reason why he should be afforded a new hearing.

Discussion

Texas Government Code § 2001.146(g) requires that a motion for rehearing "identify with particularity findings of fact and conclusions of law that are the subject of the complaint and any evidentiary or legal ruling claimed to be erroneous. The motion must also state the legal and factual basis for the claimed error."

Mr. Camacho's motion for rehearing fails to identify any specific finding of fact or conclusion of law, and it fails to provide a factual or legal basis upon which the motion might be granted. Therefore, Mr. Camacho's motion for rehearing should not be granted.

Order

It is ordered that the motion for rehearing filed by Ronaldo Camacho is denied.
