June A. Mann is an Attorney / Arbitrator / Mediator / Hearing Officer at Mann Law Firm PLLC. As an arbitrator, June serves on arbitration panels for several organizations and regularly presides over a diverse variety of consumer and complex commercial matters. As a mediator, June has assisted individuals and businesses in resolving their disputes in an extensive array of civil matters including medical billing, property disputes, personal injury, probate, vehicle accidents, auto warranty, commercial real estate, employment, debt collection, and family law cases involving divorce, child custody and visitation, and pre-divorce structured dissolution. As a hearing officer for the Texas Workforce Commission, June handles appeals on vocational rehabilitation matters and grievances involving the blind enterprise program. She is a frequent speaker at continuing legal education seminars throughout Texas and has authored numerous legal education articles on a variety of topics, including alternative dispute resolution. June is an active member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Section of the Houston Bar Association, the Texas Association of Mediators, and is credentialed by the Texas Mediation Credentialing Association. She regularly serves as a volunteer mediator and arbitrator with the Dispute Resolution Center (DRC) for Harris County and also assists in training and mentoring new mediators.

Experience

June serves as an arbitrator and mediator on the rosters of several state and national organizations including the American Arbitration Association (AAA), the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), the Texas Department of Insurance, the Texas Comptroller's Registry of Arbitrators, and the State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH).

In addition to the requirements set forth in Chapter 154.052 (a) and (b) of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, June has taken hundreds of additional hours of continuing education in Alternative Dispute Resolution. She also regularly serves as a volunteer judge in national mediation and negotiation competitions.

With her 40 years of litigation experience representing parties in state and bankruptcy court proceedings combined with her experience as an arbitrator, mediator and hearing officer, June has a unique perspective and the ability to understand the concerns that are particular to the various vantage points of each party to a dispute, whether it is in an arbitration hearing, a mediation, a courtroom, or other forum.
